

“Graphika” Rules and Regulations

Sponsored By - Joynod

JoyNod is a software that helps you play car racing games on your computer using hand gestures instead of a traditional controller. It lets you control your car by making specific hand movements, which are picked up by your computer's webcam or phone camera.

Website Instagram

Poster Making Event

Registration: Interested participants must register for the event by signing up for the google form here

Theme: The event will have a theme which will be given on the spot, and all posters must be related to the theme.

Dimensions: The poster must be created online and must be of a specific size (e.g., A3 or A4). The dimensions will be communicated to the participants before the event.

Time Limit: The event duration will be of 1hr.

Screen Share: Participants will have to screen share their work throughout the event duration in order to be eligible for the prizes

Submission: All posters must be submitted before the deadline, which will be communicated to the participants before the event. The posters can be submitted in digital format only.

Originality: The poster must be original and must not have been submitted to any other competition or event.

Plagiarism: Participants must not copy or use copyrighted material in their posters. Any poster found to have plagiarized content will be disqualified.

Judging: The posters will be judged based on creativity, originality, and adherence to the theme.

Prizes: Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

Disqualification: Any participant found to have violated the rules and regulations of the event will be disqualified.

Copyright: TechCom reserves the right to use the posters for promotional purposes.

Video Editing Event

Registration: Interested participants must register for the event by signing up for the google form here

Theme: The event will have a theme, and all videos must be related to the theme.

Equipment: Participants must bring their own equipment (e.g., laptop, editing software, etc.) to the event.

Time Limit: The event duration will be of 1hr.

Screen Share: Participants will have to screen share their work throughout the event duration in order to be eligible for the prizes.

Video Footage: Participants will be given a specific video footage to edit within a certain time frame, and they must submit their edited video before the deadline.

Submission: The edited video must be submitted before the deadline, which will be communicated to the participants before the event.

Originality: The edited video must be original and must not have been submitted to any other competition or event.

Plagiarism: Participants must not copy or use copyrighted material in their edited video. Any video found to have plagiarized content will be disqualified.

Judging: The videos will be judged based on creativity, originality, and adherence to the theme.

Prizes: Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

Disqualification: Any participant found to have violated the rules and regulations of the event will be disqualified.

Copyright: TechCom reserves the right to use the edited videos for promotional purposes.

For Queries -

Arpit Goyal - (9588741947)

Social Media Handles

Instagram LinkedIn